

MARYLAND PROPERTY DISCLOSURE AND DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

Property Address: 4007 29th Street Mount Rainier, MD 20712
Legal Description: Impsn 40 FT Lot 17 Eq Lot E

NOTICE TO SELLER AND PURCHASER

Section 10-702 of the Real Property Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, requires the owner of certain residential real property to furnish to the purchaser either (a) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLAIMER STATEMENT stating that the owner is selling the property "as is" and makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the property or any improvements on the real property, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale or in a listing of latent defects; or (b) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT disclosing defects or other information about the condition of the real property actually known by the owner. Certain transfers of residential property are excluded from this requirement (see the exemptions listed below).

10-702. EXEMPTIONS. - The following are specifically excluded from the provisions of Sections 10-702:

- 1. The initial sale of single family residential property:
A. that has never been occupied, or
B. for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued within 1 year before the seller and buyer enter into a contract of sale.
2. A transfer that is exempt from the transfer tax under Subsection 13-207 of the Tax-Property Article, except land installment contracts of sale under Subsection 13-207(11) of the Tax-Property Article and options to purchase real property under Subsection 13-207(12) of the Tax-Property Article;
3. A sale by a lender, or an affiliate or subsidiary of a lender, that acquired the real property by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure.
4. A sheriff's sale, tax sale, or sale by foreclosure, partition, or by court appointed trustee;
5. A transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust; or
6. A transfer of single family Residential Real Property to be converted by the buyer into use other than residential use or to be demolished.
7. A sale of unimproved real property.

Section 10-702 also requires the owner to disclose information about latent defects in the property that the owner has actual knowledge of. The owner must provide this information even if selling the property "as is." "Latent defects" are defined as: Material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (1) A purchaser would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection of the real property; and
(2) Would pose a direct threat to the health or safety of:
(i) the purchaser; or
(ii) an occupant of the real property, including a tenant or invitee of the purchaser.

DISCLOSURE

- Seller represents that the above described Property may contain lead paint such that said Property may be subject to the Maryland Lead Poisoning Prevention Program Act contained in the Maryland Code, Environment Article, Sections - 6-80l et seq. (1996 Repl. Vol) (the "Maryland Lead Act").
- If Seller has had the subject property inspected pursuant to the Maryland Lead Act, and such inspection revealed conditions which require remedial actions, (i.e., risk reduction obligations), Seller represents as follows:

Seller to check applicable statement(s) :

- a) Seller has the following outstanding risk reduction obligations:

- b) Seller will complete the outstanding risk reduction obligations prior to settlement.

- c) Seller will not complete the outstanding risk reduction obligations prior to settlement.

In the event that none of the foregoing boxes have been checked, this shall constitute Seller's representation that either (1) the subject property has not been inspected pursuant to the Maryland Lead Act, or (2) if the subject property has been inspected pursuant to the Maryland Lead Act, either inspection did not result in the imposition of any risk reduction obligations or all risk reduction obligations have been completed.

All outstanding obligations not completed by Seller will become Buyer's responsibility after settlement if the property remains rental property or is converted to rental property.

NOTICE

- In the event that Buyer intends to occupy the Property, but converts the Property to rental use in the future, Buyer is advised that Buyer must register the property with the Maryland Department of the Environment within 30 days following conversion of the Property to rental Property and will therefore be subject to all requirements of the Maryland Lead Act at the time of such conversion.
- In the event the Property is currently rented and will continue to be rented, Buyer is advised that Buyer must register the Property with the Maryland Department of the Environment within 30 days of settlement and will be subject to all requirements of the Maryland Lead Act at the time of settlement.

NOTICE TO BUYER AND SELLER OF BUYER'S RIGHTS AND SELLER'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER MARYLAND'S SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE LAW

ADDENDUM # 2 dated _____ to the Contract of Sale dated 01/31/08
 between Buyer: _____, and Seller Steven Holmes, Alicia Dillon for Property known as 4007 29th Street Mount Rainier, MD 20712

NOTE: This notice does not apply to: (1) the initial sale of single family residential property which has never been occupied, or for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued within one year prior to the date of the Contract; (2) a transfer that is exempt from the transfer tax under Subsection 13-207 of the Tax-Property Article, except land installments contracts of sale under Subsection 13-207(a)(11) of the Tax-Property Article and options to purchase real property under Subsection 13-207(a)(12) of the Tax-Property Article; (3) a sale by a lender or an affiliate or subsidiary of a lender that acquired the real property by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure; (4) a sheriff's sale, tax sale, or sale by foreclosure, partition or by court appointed trustee; (5) a transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust; (6) a transfer of single family residential real property to be converted by the buyer into a use other than residential use or to be demolished; or (7) a sale of unimproved real property.

Section 10-702 of the Real Property Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland ("Section 10-702") requires that a seller of a single family residential property ("the property") deliver to each buyer, on or before entering into a contract of sale, on a form published and prepared by the Maryland Real Estate Commission, EITHER:

- (A) A written property condition disclosure statement listing all defects including latent defects, or information of which the seller has actual knowledge in relation to the following:
- (i) Water and sewer systems, including the source of household water, water treatment systems, and sprinkler systems;
 - (ii) Insulation;
 - (iii) Structural systems, including the roof, walls, floors, foundation and any basement; Plumbing, electrical, heating, and air conditioning systems;
 - (iv) Infestation of wood-destroying insects;
 - (v) Land use matters;
 - (vi) Hazardous or regulated materials, including asbestos, lead-based paint, radon, underground storage tanks, and licensed landfills;
 - (vii) Any other material defects, including latent defects, of which the seller has actual knowledge; and
 - (ix) Whether the smoke detectors will provide an alarm in the event of a power outage; and
 - (x) If the property relies on the combustion of a fossil fuel for heat, ventilation, hot water, or clothes dryer operation, whether a carbon monoxide alarm is installed on the property.

Latent defects under Section 10-702 mean material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (i) A buyer would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection, and
- (ii) Would pose a threat to the health or safety of the buyer or an occupant of the property, including a tenant or invitee of the buyer;

OR

- (B) A written disclaimer statement providing that:
- (i) Except for latent defects of which the seller has actual knowledge, the Seller makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the Real property or any improvements on the real property; and
 - (ii) The buyer will be receiving the real property "as is," with all defects, including latent defects, that may exist, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale of the property.

At the time the disclosure or disclaimer statement is delivered to you ("the buyer"), you are required to date and sign a written acknowledgement of receipt on the disclosure or disclaimer statement which shall be included in or attached to the contract of sale.

Section 10-702 further provides that a buyer who receives the disclosure or disclaimer statement on or before entering into a contract of sale does not have the right to rescind the contract based upon the information contained in the disclosure or disclaimer statement.

You are hereby notified that, in certain circumstances, you have the right to rescind your contract with the seller if the seller fails to deliver to you the written property condition disclosure or disclaimer statement. Section 10-702 provides that a buyer who does not receive the disclosure or disclaimer statement on or before entering into the contract has the unconditional right, upon written notice to the seller or seller's agent:

- (i) To rescind the contract at any time before the receipt of the disclosure or disclaimer statement or within 5 days following receipt of the disclosure or disclaimer statement; and
- (ii) To the immediate return of any deposits made on account of the contract.

Your right to rescind the contract under Section 10-702 terminates if not exercised before making a written application to a lender for a mortgage loan, if the lender discloses in writing at or before the time application is made that the right to rescind terminates on submission of the application or within 5 days following receipt of a written disclosure from a lender who has received your application for a mortgage loan, if the lender's disclosure states that your right to rescind terminates at the end of that 5 day period.

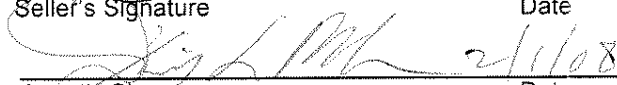

Your rights as a buyer under Section 10-702 may not be waived in the contract and any attempted waiver is void. Your rights as the buyer to terminate the contract under Section 10-702 are waived conclusively if not exercised before:

- (i) Closing or occupancy by you, whichever occurs first, in the event of a sale; or
- (ii) Occupancy, in the event of a lease with option to purchase.

The information contained in the property condition disclosure statement is the representation of the seller and not the representation of the real estate broker or sales person, if any. A disclosure by the seller is not a substitute for an inspection by an independent professional home inspection company. You should consider obtaining such an inspection. The information contained in a disclosure statement by the seller is not a warranty by the seller as to the condition of the property of which condition the seller has no actual knowledge or other condition, including latent defects, of which the seller has no actual knowledge. The seller is not required to undertake or provide an independent investigation or inspection of the property in order to make the disclosures required by Section 10-702. The seller is not liable for an error, inaccuracy or omission in the disclosure statement if the error, inaccuracy or omission was based upon information that was not within the actual knowledge of the seller or was provided to the seller by a third party as specified in Section 10-702(i) or (j).

You may wish to obtain professional advice about the property or obtain an inspection of the property.

The undersigned buyer(s) and seller(s) acknowledge receipt of this notice on the date indicated below and acknowledge that the real estate licensee(s) named below have informed the buyer(s) and the seller(s) of the buyer(s)' rights and the seller(s)' obligations under Section 10-702.
